KEY PLAN

The key plan shows the layout of the site. It features two main buildings, labeled A and B. Building A is a large, irregular structure on the left, and Building B is a smaller, more rectangular structure on the right. The entire site is outlined in red.
